BLOOM LAKE

Places to see and things to do

Minneapolis Pioneers and Soldiers Memorial Cemetery

CEDAR AVENUE & LAKE STREET
Amid the rush of traffic is the final resting place of many of our early immigrant residents. In use for nearly 150 years this oasis of calm was designated as a historic site in 2004. Learn more at www.friendsofthecemetery.org.

Annual MayDay Parade & Festival

BLOOMINGTON AVENUE & POWDERHORN PARK
In the Heart of the Beast Puppet and Mask Theatre produces the internationally acclaimed MayDay Parade and Festival. On the first Sunday of May giant puppets explode onto Bloomington Avenue in one of the most joyous celebrations around. For more information visit www.hobt.org.

Powderhorn Art Festival

POWDERHORN PARK, 15TH AVENUE & 34TH STREET
Held the first weekend in August, this art fair brings thousands to see the work of artisans from around the region. Complete with food and music, fair-goers enjoy the park as they peruse the work of 200 artists. For more information visit www.powderhornartfair.org.

Mercado Central

BLOOMINGTON AVENUE & LAKE STREET
Visit this year-round, indoor market with myriad of small, exciting businesses started by Latino immigrants. More than 40 vendors selling all kinds of food and goods make this a wonderful shopping experience. For a list of vendors visit www.mercadocentral.net.

Powderhorn Park

This gracious 65-acre park lies in the heart of Minneapolis. Featuring a small lake, surrounded by walking paths and tennis courts shaded by majestically tall trees. In summer, it's the place for picnics and cookouts, in winter skating and sledding. For a current list of programs call 612.370.4960.

Midtown Greenway

The Midtown Greenway is the biking, walking and running path one block north of Lake Street that will link the Mississippi River with the western border of Minneapolis when completed in late 2006. For more information visit www.midtowngreenway.org.

Whether by bus, light rail, car, bicycle or on foot, getting here is easy!

BY BUS: The #21 and #53 (rush hour express) travel east and west on Lake Street, the #14 goes north and south on Bloomington Avenue.

BY LIGHT RAIL: Get off at the Lake Street stop and take the westbound bus #21 or #53 and you'll be here within minutes.

BY CAR: Located in the heart of Midtown, Bloom Lake is at the center of six-mile long Lake Street. Many businesses have their own lots for customers and there is plenty of on-street parking.

BY BIKE: Just one block south of the Midtown Greenway. Hop on the trail and make your way to the exits at 13th or 18th Avenues or walk your bike up the stairs at Bloomington Avenue (bike rail provided alongside the stairs).

This directory was produced in December 2005 by the Bloomington Cedar Lake Commercial Association (BCLCA) with funds allocated by the city of Minneapolis through its Business Assistance Program. The BCLCA serves businesses located on Lake Street from 12th Avenue to Cedar Avenue and from 24th Street to 35th Street. For information about becoming involved call Ted Muller at 612.825.5100.
